

THE VIEW FROM THE CHAIR

Dennis Picott

DEAR FRIENDS, From my lofty perch I can look back with great satisfaction at a very successful November production. Murder On The Nile, was sold out before the first performance, something I can't personally remember happening before. Audiences certainly seemed to leave our theatre entertained and happy. I can speak personally for the cast and crew, we had great fun throughout rehearsals and performance. Thanks must go to Gary Fowler who directed with his usual mix of organisation and humour.

Thanks also to the team who worked so hard to transform our theatre into a very passable imitation of an Egyptian bazaar.

Looking forward to our February production, Who's Who? by Keith Waterhouse and Willis Hall, it is well into rehearsal and is directed by Margaret Kennedy. Something for us all to look forward to in the New Year.

It only remains for me to wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy and theatrical New Year.

Dennis.

OUR NEXT PRODUCTION – WHO'S WHO? by Keith Waterhouse & Willis Hall

Our opening play for 2019 is the Keith Waterhouse & Willis Hall comedy of errors Who's Who? This fast paced and frenetic production from the writers of Billy Liar is directed by Margaret Kennedy and provides the perfect antidote to any post Christmas blues.

Mr Black and Mr White are both staying at a faded, labyrinthine Brighton Hotel, where they are each planning to have an extra marital liaison. The two men have deeply opposing ideas about how best to maintain a happy home life while carrying on their clandestine affairs, and this is immediately put to the test when a wife and a girlfriend arrive. Chaos, confusion and imminent disaster follows as the pair dash about trying to cope with the situation, using their own particular philosophy to escape their inevitable fate.

And that's just the first Act! After the interval they are given the opportunity to try again, as time resets itself and roles are reversed, allowing for the alternative point of view to be tested. Which is best: always lying or always telling the truth? The only way to find out is to come along and see for yourselves.

The production features an all star cast with Jon Terry as Mr White, Steve Cowells as Mr Black, Andrea Lowe as Miss Brown and the return of Tanya Baxter as both Mrs White and Mrs Black.

The production opens on Friday 8 February 2019 and runs through to the following Saturday 16 February with a matinée only on Saturday 9 & Saturday 16 February. Evening performances commence at 7.45pm and the matinées will start at 2.30pm.

Please note that this season we are trialling having two matinées (on the first and last Saturdays), with no evening performance on that final Saturday.

PLAY READING GROUP

We always look forward to welcoming new members to our play reading sessions on the first Tuesday of the month at 19.30 in the Coffee Lounge. There is a nominal charge of £1 for refreshments.

In January we read the funny, poignant and moving On Golden Pond, our November production, and prior to that the play for May, The Thrill of Love, by Amanda Whittington, which dramatically portrays the real-life story of Ruth Ellis. There will be no reading in February due to dress rehearsals for Who's Who?, so the next play reading will be Not Now Darling which is our July production. That will be read on March 5.

Everyone is welcome to play readings and so are your suggestions for plays, which are subject to availability. For more details please contact Mary on 07891691341 or young-g4@sky.com

PROP & COSTUME SALE

SEAFORD LITTLE THEATRE
CLEARANCE
SALE

On Saturday 20 April, Easter Saturday, Seaford Little Theatre will hold its first Prop and Costume Sale. We are in the process of refurbishing our Green Room and have years of excess stock, furniture and costumes that can no longer be held in our small theatre.

The average garage sale offers unique trinkets from the life of a neighbourhood family. Multiply that a few times, and it starts to come close to the accumulation of things by Seaford Little Theatre over the decades.

Apart from experimental theatre, rarely does an audience expect to see a totally empty stage with naked actors prancing about (not on a full stomach, please). Obviously the performers normally get most of the attention, but their craft and performance would be incomplete without suitable props. From simple objects and costumes, to elaborate sets and equipment, props are a vital part of the live theatre experience. But there is only so much we can retain and keep in storage, so it is time for a Spring Clean.

Between 10.00am and 4.00pm on Easter Saturday our surplus costumes, shoes, jewellery and set decorations will be on clearance at affordable prices. Come along and have a rummage and see what you can find.

PROGRAMME FOR THE NEW SEASON

A LITTLE BIT OF VAUDEVILLE

At the end of August 2019 I am directing what I call my 'fly on the wall' entertainment again. We all had such fun last time! Rehearsals will start from about 6 August until the show opens on Friday 30 to Saturday 31 August. Rosemary Kemp will be our Musical Director as before and will help us all with our numbers.

I would very much like performers who have enjoyed being in my past shows to be a part of this, and would also welcome any others who would like to join the company and who enjoy singing, dancing and acting.

We only have a short rehearsal period, but as we say 'On with the Show!' Please let me know if you want to participate.

Graham Tubb
