

THE VIEW FROM THE CHAIR

I HAVEN'T LAUGHED SO MUCH FOR A LONG TIME". This was a comment heard after our latest production, and who is to disagree. Excellent performances by every one of the cast, superbly directed by Dorothy Hemsley and very efficiently backed up by all the back stage crew and management accounted for the undoubted success of Don't Dress for Dinner. It was splendid to see so many full houses, particularly on the last night when the production was in memory of David Harmer.

Once again Julie Pettit organised an excellent quiz evening attended by over 50 people. Julie has been the Social Chairman for some time now, and I do thank her for all she, and the other members of the Social Committee have done. Julie is standing down as Chairman and I do hope that one of you will volunteer to take her place. This is imperative if we are to continue our social activities.

Rehearsals have begun for our next production Murder With Love, a thriller by Francis Durbridge. Do come to this and be sure to let your friends know the dates - 27 July until 4 August.

It was sad to hear of the death of Roger Young who for many years was an acting member of The Dramatic Society. Our sympathy goes out to Mary and her family.

OUR NEXT PRODUCTION - MURDER WITH LOVE by Francis Durbridge

THE THRILLERS OF FRANCIS DURBRIDGE have always been popular with Seaford audiences and Stella Dench is keen to intrigue you with another one this Summer. The plot concerns the dodgy dealings of businessman and womaniser, Larry Campbell, and the many enemies he has made in his life, and there is plenty to keep you guessing.

It features some of the stalwarts of the Little Theatre stage, two more new faces, Kay Wetherilt and Graham Warren, and the welcome return of a very familiar, old one - Stephen Newberry!

The show opens on Friday 27 July and runs through to the following Saturday 4 August, with evening performances from 7.45pm and a matinee on Saturday 28 July at 2.30pm.

Tickets are available from 29 June at Living Words Bookshop, Place Lane, Seaford. Tel: 01323 893699. Please note this is open all day on Saturday.

Postal applications are also available and should be sent to:

David Backhouse, 62 Stafford Road, Seaford, BN25 1UA

They must be accompanied by a cheque made out to 'Seaford Dramatic Society' and a self-addressed, stamped envelope. If the position you request is not possible the nearest available seats will be sent.

The ticket prices are £6 each, with two for the price of one on the First Night, and £5 each for the Saturday matinee.

PLEA FOR PROPS

MARY YOUNG, WHO IS directing our November production, 84 Charing Cross Road, has asked for help with any old, hard back books, (preferably no longer needed by the owners), which are required as props for the set. Books could be delivered to the theatre on a Wednesday evening or Monday morning or she would be happy to collect. Mary can be contacted on (01323) 894304, mob: 07765202270 or by email, mary@jumblecot.freeserve.co.uk.

AUDITION NOTICE - 84 CHARING CROSS ROAD by Helen Hanff

Auditions: Monday 6 August - 7.30pm

Seaford Little Theatre

Production dates: 16 - 24 November 2007

(rehearsals start 3 September)

Director: Mary Young

In 1949 a struggling American writer, hoping to indulge her love of beautiful books, started a correspondence with a firm of British antiquarian booksellers that was to last 20 years. The warm, compassionate and very human exchange of letters was published as a book - 84 Charing Cross Road - and has been skilfully adapted for the stage. There are two major parts, of Helene Hanff and Frank Doel, but the supporting cast are on stage for much of the play and these parts offer an opportunity to develop characterisation through all the business that occurs and the passing of time. The play spans the years 1949 to 1971 and is set in a London bookshop and New York apartment. It has been described as a happy play about good happy people, which is not that common these days!

CAST

Helene Hanff	American writer, 30 – 40 +
Frank Doel	British antiquarian bookseller, 40 +
Megan	Bookshop secretary/assistant, 20 – 30 +
Cecily	Bookshop assistant, 30 +
