

A LITTLE BIT OF VAUDEVILLE PRODUCTION MEETING

As should have been apparent from the last newsletter, we are having another one of our end of Summer Revues again this year. The theme this time is A Little Bit of Vaudeville and it will take place on Friday 30 & Saturday 31 August 2019. As ever the director is Graham Tubb and we are looking for anyone who can either take part or help out in any way, so that we can put the programme together. To that end we are having a planning/production meeting at the Little Theatre on Saturday 29 June at 2.00pm.

We would welcome the input of anyone who wants to support this popular and fun event, which helps to raise funds for a worthy charitable cause. So if you have a specific talent or just generally would like to perform; or if you are too shy to grace the stage but can offer some form of practical support such as front of house, tea making, backstage assistance etc. we would love to see you at the meeting.

For those who do want to grace the stage, we need singers, dancers and performers generally. You do not have to come with pieces ready prepared as much of the programme will be devised by Graham, however he is very open to suggestions as to what could be included - if you have a particular talent you would like to unleash on Seaford, or a favourite song, monologue or sketch that you feel would be appropriate, come along and suggest it.

The more people that get involved, the more evenly the burden can be distributed and thus everyone can have a good time and enjoy themselves. These 'Little Bit' Revues have always been a great deal of fun and very successful in the past, so let's keep up the tradition and produce another one to be proud of this year.

As always rehearsal time will be relatively short (proposed starting date early August - this will be firmed up at the meeting), but on the plus side it won't eat into everyone's free time too much, so every cloud ... And the other good news is that Rosemary Kemp will be back on the keyboard as Musical Director to provide musical back up for the whole show.

Anyway, give it all some thought, note the production meeting date in your diary (Saturday 29 June 2019, 2.00pm) and come along on the day and help us to stage another memorable production.
